

FEEDING, CARING AND SURVIVING

TIME

- 09:00 - 09:30 Arrive and registration
09.30 - 9:45 Welcome and introduction

Morning sessions: Nutrition and outcomes

- 9:45 - 10:05 The PePANIC trial: nutrition in the acute phase of critical illness
Dr Sascha Vebruggen, Paediatric Intensivist, Erasmus Medical Centre, The Netherlands
- 10:05-10.25 Prehab: does it make a difference?
Dr Luise Marino, Clinical Academic Paediatric Dietitian, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 10:25 - 10:45 Feeding intolerance in PICU: intensivist perspective
Dr Sascha Vebruggen, Paediatric Intensivist, Erasmus Medical Centre, The Netherlands
- 10:45 - 11.05 Feeding intolerance in PICU: Gastroenterologist perspective
Prof Mark Beattie, Consultant Paediatric Gastroenterologist, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 11:05 - 11:25 Feeding difficulties in ICU survivors: current evidence
Katy Morton, PICU Sister, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 11:25 - 11:45 PICU rehab
Dr Barney Scholefield, Consultant Paediatric Intensivist, Birmingham Children's Hospital
- 11:45 - 12:05 Nutrition: what are the key research priorities & how do we get there?
Dr Lyvonne Tume, Associate Professor in Child Health, University of Salford
- 12:05- 12:15 Questions & session end
12:15 - 13:15 Lunch and Meet 'Leo the Dog'

Afternoon session 1: Ethics and decision making

- 13:15 - 13:35 The benefit of Therapy dogs
Donna Austin, PICU ANP, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 13:35- 13:55 Decision-making: PICU family perspectives
Professor Jos Latour, Professor in Clinical Nursing, University of Plymouth
- 13:55 - 14:15 Decision-making: Health care professional perspectives
Dr Iain Macintosh, Consultant Paediatric Intensivist, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 14:15 - 14:35 Difficult conversations and ethics in PICU
Dr Peta Coulson-Smith, Senior Teaching Fellow, University of Southampton
- 14.35 - 14.55 Implementing changes – from science to practice
Dr Mark Johnson, Consultant Neonatologist, BRC Training Lead, Southampton Children's Hospital
- 14.55 - 15.10 Questions & session end
15.10- 16.00 Coffee/tea

Afternoon session 2: Quality of life of seriously ill children

- 16.00 - 16.45 Inaugural Lecture:
Facing the unimaginable: Seriously ill children and their families
Professor Anne-Sophie Darlington Inaugural Lecture: Professor of Child and Family Psychological Health
- 16.45 - 16.55 Round up/close and reception

FREE EVENT

When : 5th March 2020 How to book: <https://symposium-feeding-caring-surviving.eventbrite.co.uk/>
Contact: Kathryn.Morton@uhs.nhs.uk
Venue: Lecture Theatre B, Level C, South Academic Block, University Hospital Southampton NHS Foundation Trust, , Southampton, SO16 6YD
Course conveners: Dr Luise Marino, Katy Morton, Professor Anne-Sophie Darlington